Authorisation

Each applicant must be a signatory authorised to perform transactions on the account. All signatories on the account are required to sign the application form authorising issuance of the card. The account holder acknowledges and agrees that:

- A. notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the account mandate:
 1. a Visa Debit card ("card") may be issued to every signatory on the Account (each a "cardholder");
 2. each cardholder is authorised to use the card;
 3. each use of the card results in a debit from the account ("debit"); and
 4. the account holder is liable for the total of all debits resulting from all uses of the card(s).
- B. the maximum amount of all debits for all uses of the card in a day is the account holder's daily transaction limit;
- C. the maximum amount of a debit for each use of the card in a day is the balance then available in the account holder's daily transaction limit.

Authorisation
 It is understood that by signing, activating and/or using the CIBC Caribbean Visa Debit card, the applicant and all additional cardholders have received and read the terms and conditions set out in the cardholder agreement (agreement) applicable to the product/program. It is understood that if the applicant and additional cardholder(s) do not receive a copy of the agreement, or have questions regarding the Agreement, contact will be made with CIBC Caribbean. The applicant and additional Cardholder(s) agree to pay all fees incurred in the issuance of the CIBC Caribbean Visa Debit card including applicable rush card or joining fees or other applicable fee. Whether or not the CIBC Caribbean Visa Debit Card is issued, the applicant and additional cardholder(s) consent to CIBC Caribbean exchanging information with other parties, other agents, including CIBC Caribbean associates overseas, contractors, card issuers and card processors. Further, the Applicant and Additional Cardholders agree that CIBC Caribbean may share information about the CIBC Caribbean Visa Debit Account through licensed credit reference agencies and other financial institutions. Shared information from these agencies or institutions is used to make lending decisions and to prevent fraud. The applicant and all additional cardholders certify under penalties of perjury that the information provided in this application is accurate and correct.
