

City FC Scores With CIBC Caribbean ComTrust

Maraval, Trinidad, August 27, 2024 – Port of Spain City FC took advantage of the JAVA (July August vacation) holidays to encourage young footballers to showcase their talents at a premium tourney.

With support from CIBC Caribbean’s ComTrust Foundation, Port of Spain City FC hosted its football tournament at St Mary’s and St Joseph Convent’s Grounds in Port of Spain.

Established in 2022, but formally known as QPCC FA (2012-2022), Port of Spain City FC is currently the largest youth development academy in the country. The tournament’s goal was to bring a never-before-seen experience to youth footballers between the ages of seven and 20.

CIBC Caribbean’s ComTrust Foundation, the bank’s charitable arm, was established as a registered charity in Barbados. The foundation supports projects in the 11 countries where the bank has a presence, donating not less than USD$1 million annually.
